The reason we chose the May 12th date is very simple. Dennis is doing many talks around Yom haatzmaut but not the actual day. There is some very big organization in New York that has contracted with ehud to speak on October 20th which was the date that we wanted and they have achieved exclusivity so no one else gets him in September October or November which is a lot of time. Do you know who that organization is? In any case they will not allow us to have him in those three months so we will have to go to December and we would like to have had him before that but if he can't do May 12th I guess we can't

May 12 is our Independence Day in Israel.
A lot of events around that day that PM Barak assists.
I remember you mentioned in previous email sometime in October, haven't you?

You made the security huge expense go away so now I think the deal will go through for May 12 but we will only know on Thursday.

Thanks to you and Ehud for waiting so patiently - "savlanut" is the most important - you will know soon on Thursday what happens with this - Dennis is holding the date (I just spoke with him) - I really look forward to meeting you and Ehud, Aliya

.We are really surprised
.I will call Don Walker. There is no such thing, to our knowledge
.Very strange

!Very interesting response - wow

:Let me clarify

:Here's what Walker sent us which they had not discussed with us before

:SECURITY
It is understood and agreed to by the Sponsor that before the event the Israeli government's security service will consult with the Sponsor about the security of this event. If it is deemed appropriate by the Israeli security services, Sponsor will provide and pay for magnetometers and people trained to operate them, as well as trained staff to search the bags of attendees as appropriate for security purposes. Magnetometers are required at every public event with attendance of 750 or more. If the audience is less than 750, the need for magnetometers is solely at .the discretion of Israeli security

Then, after I spent two days looking for security firms and told the Walker :chevreh how expensive it is, they wrote today

Aliya-I spoke with my security contacts who are working on an estimate as well and they think they can get the price down. I will not have the estimate until later tonight or early tomorrow though. I will keep you posted

So once again we are in a holding pattern. Originally (on Friday) Walker wanted Central to sign a request form for Ehud saying that Central would pay for security no matter what the price and nobody could give us a price (at one point a person at Walker said it might be $10,000!!!) , so I had to spend two days making phone calls to security ?firms to try to determine price. What a balagan, eh

Hi Aliya,
Your mail surprised me.
There is no need of special security. Moreover the sums seem exaggerated. Who is reclaiming it and why? Our israeli security who comes in when an event is declared, have their own devices. They have no knowledge of the event, if there will be one, so they couldn't ask for any security measurements. Sounds odd.
We are not aware of special security means taken in Sarasota. There were security details who accompanied us from Israel on their own expenses. I don't think anybody asked for more.

Nili,

Believe it or not, I spent 2 hours of my holiday today on the phone with security firms (one that has protected many dignitaries and one that protected Netanyahu) trying to figure out how I can get Central Synagogue proper security for Ehud. It is crazy, b'emet! Howard Tevlowitz in Sarasota told me he spent under $1000 on security and the two firms I spoke with in New York are saying that it will be between $5000 and $7000. So now the whole thing has to go back to many people at Central to see if they can add $5000 - 7000 to the offer. Oy!

I'm sure you'll hear from Walker soon, unless the whole thing gets pulled because of the security expenses which I hope won't happen.

Best, Aliya

Good morning aliya,
I am glad to hear that the contacts are being pursued. As I haven't heard neither from you nor from the agency, I thought it was stuck on the way. Good!
Yes, we just came back from Sarasota with a wonderful feed back from them.
warm regards,
Nili

I wanted to thank you, first and foremost, for being so warm in our phone call last week. Now I want to tell you that the negotiations through the Harry Walker people have been equally wonderful - Dennis Ross was happy that I am working on this, and - if the Venue clears the date (in October) with its maintenance schedule (because it is the month of the Jewish holidays) you should be getting a formal offer from the Walker chevreh either tomorrow or Thursday once I get approval from the venue .and finish filling out the paperwork

The Kabbalah says there is no such thing as coincidence - would you believe I happened to be talking with the Jewish Federation of Sarasota-Manatee today about another of my artists and they told me proudly "We just had Ehud Barak and an audience of 1000!" - I couldn't believe it - what ?confluence of events, eh

Let's look forward to the formal offer coming to you - all best, and please let Ehud know that this is going to be .very exciting if it works out

Best, Aliya (from personal email)

Nili, I just wanted to remind you that, if we can work something out with Harry Walker I will need to have a piece of this for making the shidduch and bringing everyone together. I am sure that the Walker agent and I can work it out but I would ask that you not share with them the name of the synagogue until I choose to discuss it with them. Thank you so much! Aliya
